MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION

1. JURISDICTION

A. This Court has jurisdiction over this Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§157 and 1334 and by the Order of Reference in this District. Venue of the Debtors' Chapter 7 case is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1408 and 1409. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. §157(b)(2). The bases for the relief sought herein are §105 of the Bankruptcy Code and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004, 4002, 7004, 7034, 7045, 9014, 9016, 9020, and Local Bankruptcy Rule 4002-1.

B. The Debtors filed a Chapter 7 case on August 31, 2016 of record as Case No. 16-55712 (the "Chapter 7 Case").

C. The Trustee was appointed as Trustee in the Chapter 7 Case by the U.S. Trustee pursuant to the provisions of 11 U.S.C. §701.

D. The Trustee conducted the meeting of creditors in the Chapter 7 Case on October 6, 2016.

2. BACKGROUND

A. The Debtors own the Real Property. The Debtors, however, are not living at the Real Property, so the Real Property is not subject to a homestead exemption.

B. OneMain Financial holds a mortgage on the Real Property, which is estimated to be in the amount of $35,000.

C. The Real Property was damaged by a break-in. Certain contents were damaged and/or stolen during the break-in.

D. The Debtors then submitted the Insurance Claims with Auto-Owners Insurance. The Insurance Claims are property of the bankruptcy estate in the Debtors' Chapter 7 Case pursuant to the provisions of 11 USC § 541.

E. Accordingly, the Trustee needs to investigate the Insurance Claim. Since March 7, 2017, the Trustee and/or his counsel have made multiple attempts to acquire this information from the Insurance Representative. The Insurance Representative has failed to provide a single responsive document to the Trustee and/or his counsel.

3. LEGAL BASIS FOR THE RELIEF REQUESTED IN THE MOTION

A. Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004 provides that, upon the motion of any party in interest, the Court may order the examination of any entity with respect to the following:

1. The Debtors' acts, conduct, or property;
2. The Debtors' liability or financial condition; or
3. Any other matter that may affect the administration of the Debtors' bankruptcy estate or the right of the Debtors to receive a discharge in this case.

Section (c) of Rule 2004 states in relevant part as follows:

The attendance of an entity for examination and for the production of documents, whether the examination is to be conducted within or without the district in which the case is pending, may be compelled as provided in Rule 9016 for the attendance of a witness at a hearing or trial.

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004(c) [emphasis added].

B. Any interest of the Debtors in the Insurance Claims constitutes property of the Debtors' bankruptcy estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §541.

C. The Requested Documents relate to property of the Debtors' bankruptcy estate and are matters that affect the administration of the Debtors' bankruptcy estate. Accordingly, these matters are the proper subject of a Rule 2004 Examination.

D. Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004 also specifically permits the Court to order that documents be produced in conjunction with the proposed examination. The review of the Requested Documents is necessary for the Trustee to determine what action needs to be taken to administer assets in this case. Therefore, the Requested Documents and information are within the proper scope of examination provided for by Rule 2004 and the Requested Documents should be produced.

E. Further, Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7034 is applicable to this Motion and may be used as a basis for the Court to compel the Insurance Representative to produce the Requested Documents. The Motion is a contested matter pursuant to the provisions of Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014, which states in relevant part as follows:

- (a) Motion. In a contested matter not otherwise governed by these rules, relief shall be requested by motion, and reasonable opportunity for hearing shall be afforded the party against whom relief is sought.

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7034 applies to contested matters and states that Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34 is applicable to contested matters. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34 provides that persons, whether or not parties, may be required to produce documents and things in a manner which is consistent with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45. Rule 45 provides that when a statute of the United States provides for the production of documents that the Court may issue a subpoena that can be effectively served outside of the district. The Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure are promulgated pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. §2075. Accordingly, any requirement to produce documents that is contained in any Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (including Rule 2004 and Rules 7034 and 7045) is required by a United States statute and the nationwide service of subpoena provisions of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 is applicable. The Insurance Representative resides in the United States and in this District.

This is the basis for the request that the Court order that the manner of service of the Order granting this Motion shall be effective for all purposes under the Bankruptcy Code and Rules.

Production of the Requested Documents is also appropriate for the reasons in this section.

4. CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated, the Court should compel the Insurance Representative to appear at the Rule 2004 Examination and to produce the Requested Documents.

Accordingly, it is appropriate and necessary for the Court to enter an Order granting the Motion.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ David M. Whittaker
